

Surge Suppressors for Factory Data Networks

Surge suppressors should be installed at both ends of the signal loop to protect both the transmitter and the receiver/controller or PLC.